Appies and Drinks

May 19th at Brian and Georgina's home

May 11, 2017

President Susan Snider opened the meeting with hello and goodbye to the Gaudins, who are making the big move to the West Coast! Farewell and good luck, Susan and Wilson. That is quite the adventure you are embarking on. Susan discussed the current events of our chapter, including the Probus Extravaganza, which takes place May 30.

Val introduced our guest speaker, Brock Godfrey, who informed us on the subject of fraud protection while using our computers. He talked about the different anti-virus programs, passwords, etc. how to choose your passwords, how to protect your passwords, be careful where you use free Wi-Fi, as it is not safe for personal information.

After the discussion, Brock answered questions from the floor.

After break, he showed us a few examples of current fraudulent emails, very real looking, but there are certain things to look for to prevent the perps from getting to you. Steve Snell presented Brock with a cheque to the Moncton Families as a thank you for attending our meeting.

May 25, 2017

We were treated to a very interesting presentation by Major Lee-Anne Quinn who spent twenty-three years in the Canadian Forces including eight and a half months in Afghanistan working as a nurse practitioner and at an isolated First Nations Community in Northern Ontario. She has won several well deserved awards and medals for her outstanding work and accomplishments. Since retiring from the military in 2008 she has been working as a nurse practitioner in Primary Healthcare in her hometown of Peterborough. Recently she has also been involved with a Syrian refugee family. She left us with the message that "Every human on the face of this earth deserves to be treated humanely".

May 30th
Probus Extravaganza

The day started with coffee and muffins and socializing. Some dignitaries spoke and then John Mattson performed a Smudging Ceremony. We had a short break and then our guest speaker spoke. Terry Fallis entertained us about the trials and tribulations of becoming a published author and 2 time winner of the Stephan Leacock Medal.

We then had lunch and the day concluded with door prizes. Steve Snell won a planter and Donna MacMillan won $150.00. A good day Thank you Susan for all your hard work!!!!
